CATALOGUE 2021

WELCOME TO THE FREEDOM CATALOGUE

Anarchism is almost certainly the most interesting political movement to have slipped under the radar of public discourse.

It is rarely pulled up in today's media as anything other than a curio or a threat. But over the course of 175 years since Pierre-Joseph Proudhon's declaration "I am an anarchist" this philosophy of direct action and free thought has repeatedly changed the world.

From Nestor Makhno's legendary war on both Whites and Reds in 1920s Ukraine, to the Spanish Civil War, to transformative ideals in the 1960s and street-fought antifascism in the 1980s, anarchism remains a vital part of any rounded understanding of humanity's journey from past to present, let alone the possibilities for its future.

For most of that time there has been Freedom Press. Founded in 1886, brilliant thinkers past and present have published through Freedom, allowing us to present today a kaleidoscope of classic works from across the modern age.

Featuring books from Peter Kropotkin, Marie Louise Berneri, William Blake, Errico Malatesta, Colin Ward and many more, this catalogue offers much of what you might need to understand a fascinating creed.

SHOP ORDERS

You can order online, by email, phone or post (details below). Our business hours are 10am-6pm, Monday to Saturday.

BY VASSILIS PALAIOKOSTAS

FREEDOM PRESS, NOV 1, 2021

ISBN: 978-1-904491-41-5

B&W, 352PP

EST RRP: £15

A bestseller in his native country, this is the official autobiography of famed “Greek Robin Hood” who has robbed millions from the rich and given it all to the poor. With decades of activity under his belt, Palaiokostas is perhaps best known for his daring prison escapes — including not once, but twice by helicopter.

WHY WORK THIRD EDITION

OUT NOW

COLLECTED ESSAYS, WITH FOREWORD BY SHIRI SHALMY

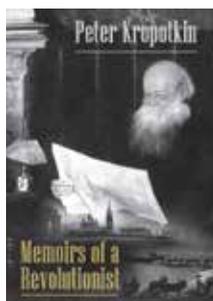

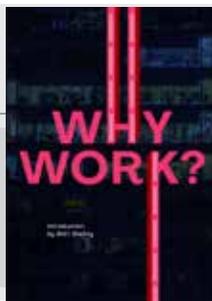

The nature of work and our relationship to it is evolving more rapidly than ever before. This third edition of collected essays features both a new foreword from union and co-op activist Shiri Shalmy and three new essays discussing our modern circumstance.

MEMOIRS OF A REVOLUTIONIST

OUT NOW

FREEDOM PRESS, APR, 2021

ISBN: 978-1-904491-37-8

B&W, 356PP

RRP: £13

Perhaps history’s most important anarchist thinker, Kropotkin was born an imperial Russian prince. Charting his involvement in epochal historic moments and the upheaval of all that was, this autobiography is a beautiful bringing together of his memories and philosophical roots.

WHAT IS ANARCHIST COMMUNISM

BY BRIAN MORRIS

This short work summarising what you should know about the history, philosophy and background of anarchist communism is a perfect introduction for anyone looking to understand an often misunderstood political movement.

DETAILS TBA

FRONT LIST

FIGHTING WOMEN

BY ISABELLA LORUSSO

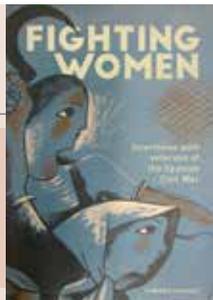

This series of interviews with participants in the Spanish Civil War offers a unique insight into the two-front revolution women were trying to achieve in the 1930s, fighting fascism while confronting men whose commitment to liberation too often stopped at their front door.

FREEDOM PRESS, OCT 2020

RRP: £10

WORKERS IN STALIN'S RUSSIA

BY MARIE LOUISE BERNERI

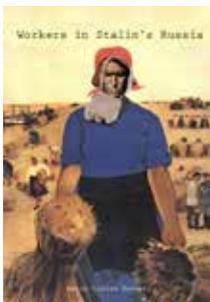

FREEDOM PRESS, DEC 2020

ISBN: 978-1-904491-36-1

BGW, 124 PP

RRP: £7.50

Berneri's precise and well-researched investigation of working class and peasant life in 1930s-40s USSR is annotated and updated in this edition. As an anarchist she uses the Stalinists' own words to strip back the regime's revolutionary pretensions and expose its hypocrisies.

ANARCHISM IS MOVEMENT

BY TOMÁS IBÁÑEZ, FOREWORD BY PETER GELDERLOOS

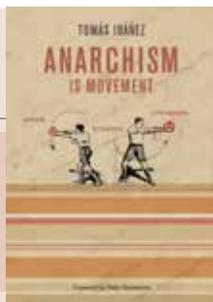

The child of Spanish revolutionaries who fled to France in the aftermath of the Spanish Civil War, Tomás Ibáñez has been active in anarchist politics since the 1960s as an activist and thinker. After a lifetime of struggle, this book distils his thoughts on anarchism in times to come.

BY GEORGE BARRETT

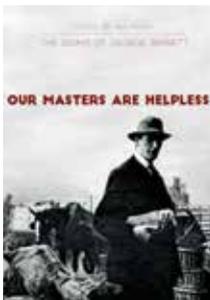

FREEDOM PRESS, JUN 2019

ISBN: 978-1-904491-32-3

BGW, 140 PP

RRP: £7.50

George Barrett was one of the anarchists' key organisers through the period of the Great Unrest, a syndicalist-led uprising which shook Britain shortly before the first world war began. Written mainly between 1910-1915, this selection of essays offers a unique political view from the time and remains incisive today.

INVISIBLE

BY ANDREW FRASER

FREEDOM PRESS, JAN 2019

ISBN: 978-1-904491-31-6

B&W, 208PP

RRP: £10

Many writers and books talk about the homeless. Andrew has direct experience. His writing on life as a rough sleeper, interwoven through this scorching diary piece, offers a clear-eyed truth from the gutters of Britain's housing crisis.

THE TROUBLE WITH NATIONAL ACTION

BY MARK HAYES

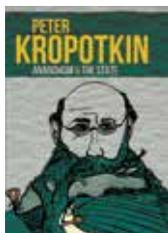

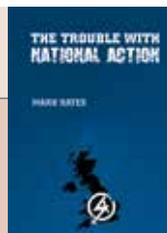

This short work examines the neo-nazi organisation's emergence in Britain in 2013, its evolution until it was proscribed in 2016 and the impact such reliance on State mechanisms is having on both far-right and left-wing politics.

ANARCHISM AND THE STATE

FREEDOM PRESS, 2017

ISBN: 979-1-904491-26-2

B&W, 100 PP

RRP: £6

In the three essays presented here, political philosopher Peter Kropotkin attempted to distil his insights into brief but brilliant essays on The State, Anarchism and the ideology for which he became a founding name — Anarchist-Communism.

CLASS STRUGGLE AND MENTAL HEALTH

BY LIBCOM.ORG CONTRIBUTORS

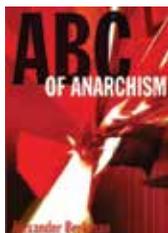

This thoughtful work brings together accounts from anarchists around the globe about what it means to suffer from mental illness as an activist and what we, as individuals and a movement, can do about it.

BY ALEXANDER BERKMAN

FREEDOM PRESS, 2006

FIRST PUBLISHED 1929

ISBN: 978-0-900384-03-4

B&W, 147 PP

RRP: £6

Alexander Berkman answers some of the charges made against the political creed and presents the case for communist anarchism. Thorough and well constructed, it is today regarded as a classic statement of the cause's goals and methods.

BACKLIST

ACTIVISM, ANTI-FASCISM

BEATING THE FASCISTS

BY SEAN BIRCHALL

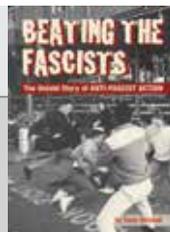

A compelling account of the activities of Anti-Fascist Action by those on the frontline. This organised group of ordinary working class people took the fight to the far right during the 1980s-90s. They waged a nationwide street war – and won.

BY BRIAN MARTIN

FREEDOM PRESS, 1991

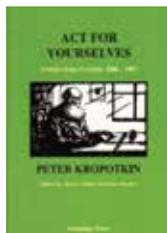

ISBN: 978-0-900384-63-8

B&W, 69 PP

RRP: £1.95

This booklet is designed for people who oppose a gang of scientific experts and want to challenge them. The various methods described show how a small number of critics can mount remarkably effective challenges to a powerful scientific Establishment.

CLASSIC FREEDOM ESSAYS

ACT FOR YOURSELVES — FREEDOM ARTICLES 1886-1907

EDITED BY NICHOLAS WALTER & HEINER BECKER

FREEDOM PRESS, 1998

ISBN: 978-0-900384-38-7

B&W, 131 PP

RRP: £5

A score of articles which famed political thinker Peter Kropotkin contributed to the anarchist paper Freedom from 1886-1907. During the same period he was writing articles in the French anarchist press which were later collected as a well-known book, The Conquest of Bread.

CHARLOTTE WILSON: ANARCHIST ESSAYS

EDITED BY NICOLAS WALTER

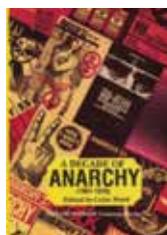

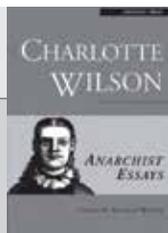

A selection of political essays by Charlotte Wilson, principal founder of Freedom Press. She had been writing about anarchism in the socialist press since 1884 before starting her own title, and she led the anarchist fraction in the Fabian Society.

FREEDOM PRESS, 2000

ISBN: 978-0-900384-99-9

EDITED BY COLIN WARD

ISBN: 978-0-900384-37-9

B&W, 283 PP

RRP: £5

Over the course of its run Anarchy produced some 4,000 pages of often groundbreaking work. This selection of the very best essays, selected by editor Colin Ward, is a must-read for paradigm-challenging theories that came out of the imprint.

THE LEFT AND WORLD WAR II

EDITED BY VERNON RICHARDS

Starting with the article Communist Party Politics Exposed from War Commentary in November 1939, Richards selects a series of works savagely analysing the Left at war. Trade Unions, Eire, Pacifism and the ILP are all dealt with.

FREEDOM PRESS, 1998

FREEDOM PRESS, 2009

(FIRST PUBLISHED 1902)

ISBN: 978-1-904491-10-1

B&W, 301 PP

RRP: £15

The classical anarchist-communist's most influential work, first published in 1902. A challenge to classical Darwinism, Kropotkin argues that in nature, co-operation is as important as competition.

CULTURE

REREADING READ

EDITED BY MICHAEL PARASKOS

From lowly beginnings Herbert Read grew to be an important figure in the worlds of anarchism and the arts. Paraskos's compilation of essays with colour illustrations explores all aspects of his work and political thought.

BY TONY ALLEN, FOREWORD BY KEN CAMPBELL

ISBN: 978-1-904491-04-9

B&W, 203 PP

RRP: £8.50

Nothing can prepare you for the Hyde Park speaking experience. The close proximity of other meetings and the robust heckling tradition make Speakers' Corner unlike any other forum of public performance. Allen recalls his year there talking about anarchism.

WILLIAM BLAKE: VISIONARY ANARCHIST

BY PETER MARSHALL

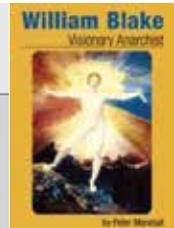

William Blake was a poet, painter, engraver and visionary. Considered eccentric, if not mad, in his own day, he now appears as a key figure in English Romanticism. But he had his feet on the ground and was involved in the central issues of his time.

FREEDOM PRESS, 2006
ISBN: 978-1-904491-07-3
B&W, 97 PP A6
RRP: £5

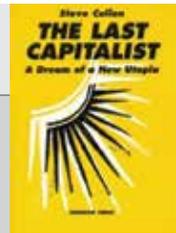

Some say that it should not be the highest priority of a revolutionary movement to ask itself obscure questions, but it is fun, and if it encourages an enquiring mind, then all the better. So agitate, educate and organise, all in a handy Q&A format.

THE LAST CAPITALIST: A DREAM OF A NEW UTOPIA

BY STEVE CULLEN

Anne Riordan is a fan of the hard-boiled detective novels, but in a future British society they don't exist, swept away by the lifestyle of people living in federated communes. So she undertakes a pilgrimage to find the last of the capitalists.

HISTORY

THE ANARCHISTS IN LONDON 1935-55

BY ALBERT MELTZER

At the beginning of the 1930s British anarchism was barely clinging on. By the mid-1960s however all that had changed, with a newly invigorated movement. Meltzer tells the story of his part in those in-between years.

THE MAY DAYS: BARCELONA 1937

BY AUGUSTIN SOUCHY, JOSE PEIRATS, BURNETT BOLLOTEN AND EMMA GOLDMAN

Most academics treat the May Days in Barcelona 1937 as "a minor incident in the Spanish Civil War" in spite of the fact that casualties – 500 killed and 1,000 wounded – were actually greater than in the first week of the military uprising in Barcelona.

FREEDOM PRESS, 1998

FIELDS, FACTORIES AND WORKSHOPS TOMORROW

BY PETER KROPOTKIN, EDITED BY COLIN WARD

FREEDOM PRESS, 1985
(FIRST PUBLISHED 1898)
ISBN: 978-0-900384-28-8
B&W, 205 PP
RRP: £7.95

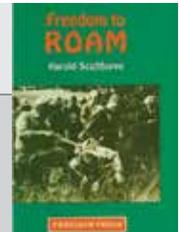

The famed political philosopher's vision of the ordering of industrial society along communistic lines. This work has been widely influential for anarchists and non-anarchists alike, and Kropotkin's deductions are still controversial and revolutionary today.

FREEDOM TO ROAM

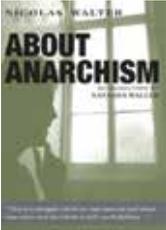

BY HAROLD SCULTHORPE

These essays discuss problems encountered when walking in the countryside, such as landowners who would prefer to command exclusive use of their land, large scale factory farmers, the MoD and others who try and exclude walkers.

FREEDOM PRESS, 1993
ISBN: 978-0-900384-68-9

INTRODUCTIONS TO ANARCHISM

ABOUT ANARCHISM

BY NICOLAS WALTER, INTRODUCTION BY NATASHA WALTER

FREEDOM PRESS, 2002
(FIRST PUBLISHED 1969)
ISBN: 978-0-900384-90-5
B&W, 93 PP
RRP: £3.50

Today, the word anarchism inspires both fear and fascination. But few people understand what anarchists believe, what anarchists want, and what anarchists do. This incisive essay puts the case for anarchism as a pragmatic political philosophy.

ANARCHY

BY ERICO MALATESTA

Malatesta was a warm-hearted anarchist of wide influence, who said he considered Anarchy the best thing he had written. A rebuttal to the notion that anarchism equals chaos, this short series of explanations about anarchist thinking is a classic.

FREEDOM PRESS, 2009
(FIRST PUBLISHED 1891)

FREEDOM PRESS/SOLFED, 2014
(FIRST PUBLISHED 1949)
ISBN: 978-1-904491-22-4
B&W, 44 PP
RRP: £5

A new edition of this classic with extensive notes. Rocker remains one of the most important figures in the history of anarchism, from his role organising against sweatshop labour in 1900s London to helping found the IWMA anarchist international.

AT THE CAFÉ: CONVERSATIONS ON ANARCHISM

BY ERICO MALATESTA

Originally written in the 1890s, this collection was only translated in 2005, and charts debates the author had at a local cafe in which he argued the corner of anarchism. Malatesta put himself at some risk to do so, as he was wanted by police.

EVERYTHING YOU WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT ANARCHISM

BY SIMON READ

REBEL PRESS, 2004
ISBN: 0-946061-10-6
B&W, 64PP
RRP: £3

Anarchism is not chaos within a bloody struggle for survival. That's what we have at the moment. The pursuit of selfish interests. A state of total disorganisation. The triumph of the strong over the weak. That's what we have at the moment.

FIGHTING FOR OURSELVES

BY SOLIDARITY FEDERATION

How are we to fight back, to take the initiative? Against capitalism, what do we want to put in its place? Solfed looks at anarcho-syndicalism and the class struggle, while setting about recovering lost history in order to set out a revolutionary strategy.

CHILD IN THE CITY

BY COLIN WARD

BEDFORD PRESS, 1990
ISBN: 978-0-719912-59-8
B&W, 217 PP
RRP: £7.95

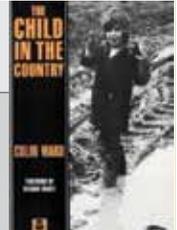

One of a pair of brilliantly researched pieces charting the use of space by children, and the limits on their lives brought by societal attitudes. Child in the City draws together lessons from the slums of Bangladesh to the back streets of London.

CHILD IN THE COUNTRY

BY COLIN WARD

Following on from Child in the City, Ward documents the realities facing children in a rural area. The decline of public transport, closures of village shops & schools, lack of access to fields, woods and streams, and the influx of affluent newcomers are analysed.

BEDFORD PRESS, 1990

LOVE, SEX AND POWER IN LATER LIFE

BY TONY GIBSON

FREEDOM PRESS, 1992
ISBN: 978-0-900384-65-4
B&W, 101 PP
RRP: £3.50

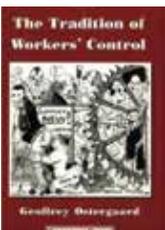

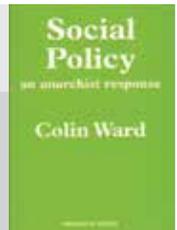

The revolution in sexual mores has largely bypassed the needs of older people, with the emancipated young often unable to accept that the old also have a continuing need for sexual and emotional fulfillment. Tony Gibson sets out to redress that balance.

SOCIAL POLICY: AN ANARCHIST RESPONSE

BY COLIN WARD

Ward examines the welfare road we failed to take, the hidden history of housing, water and the gift relationship and looks forward to anarchism in the 21st Century.

BY GEOFFREY OSTERGAARD

FREEDOM PRESS, 1997
ISBN: 978-0-900384-91-3
B&W, 154 PP
RRP: £6.95

Ostergaard makes the case for libertarian socialism in the workplace, castigating the false "managerial revolution" brought about by social democrats. A hopeful piece, it picks out examples of workers' control in modern industry.

WELCOME, THINNER CITY

BY COLIN WARD

Ward challenges our preconceptions about the historical past, and about the state of our cities today. He shows, with a host of examples, that poor city dwellers can rehouse themselves, given the access to credit that the affluent take for granted.

ABOUT US

Freedom was founded by a group of friends including Charlotte Wilson (left) and Peter Kropotkin, who were already publishing Freedom newspaper. It has operated, with short breaks, ever since and has been at its home in Tower Hamlets for the last 50 years.

An independent, radical co-op controlled by its volunteers and part-time staff, Freedom runs Britain's oldest anarchist publishing house and its largest bookshop.

Alongside our own extensive back catalogue of classic works we stock thousands of books, newspapers and pamphlets on everything from history to sex, philosophy to workers' struggles, fiction to anti-fascism, as well as the latest magazines, periodicals and newsletters from all the major anarchist and radical groups.
